In a letter dated 12 August 1992,<sup>195</sup> addressed to the President of the Security Council for the attention of the members of the Council, the Secretary-General referred to Security Council resolution 767 (1992) of 27 July 1992, by which the Council had urged all parties, movements and factions in Somalia to cooperate with the United Nations with a view to the urgent deployment of the United Nations security personnel called for in paragraphs 4 and 5 of its resolution 751 (1992) of 24 April 1992. ### Decisions

In a letter dated 1 September 1992,<sup>198</sup> addressed to the President of the Security Council, the Secretary-General referred to paragraph 37 of his report of 24 August 1992 on the situation in Somalia,<sup>199</sup> in which he had indicated that it would be for the Council to authorize the increases in the strength of the United Nations Operation in Somalia that he had recommended. These would relate to the establishment of four zone headquarters and to the deployment of four additional security units, each with a strength of up to 750 all ranks. On 28 August 1992 he had circulated an addendum to his report,<sup>200</sup> indicating that an operation of this size and complexity would require an elaborate logistic, communications and medical support which would be best provided by three specialized units, estimated at

up to 719 all ranks at the early stage of deployment. The addendum also contained the cost estimates for the enlargement of the Operation, including the logistic components. The Secretary-General added that it would appear that in its resolution 775 (1992) of 28 August 1992, the Council had only referred to paragraph 37 of the report of 24 August 1992 but not to the addendum. The purpose of the Secretary-General's letter was to bring this matter to the attention of the Council and to request the Council, through the President, to extend the applicability of the authorization contained in paragraph 3 of resolution 775 (1992) to cover also the logistic support unit. The Secretary-General stated that the total strength of the Operation should be 4,219 all ranks (3,000 security personnel, including the unit of 500 already authorized for Mogadishu, and 719 all ranks for the logistic units).

In a letter dated 8 September 1992,<sup>201</sup> the President of the Council informed the Secretary-General as follows:

"I have the honour to inform you that your letter dated 1 September 1992<sup>198</sup> concerning the logistic support unit of the United Nations Operation in Somalia has been brought to the attention of the members of the Council, who are in agreement with the proposal contained in that letter."

In a letter dated 1 September 1992,<sup>202</sup> addressed to the President of the Security Council, the Secretary-General referred to paragraphs 2 and 3 of resolution 775 (1992) of 28 August 1992. In order to give effect to the authorization for the increase in strength of the United Nations Operation in Somalia, he had undertaken consultations with the following Governments: Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Egypt, Germany, Nigeria, Sweden and Switzerland. In view of the urgent need to deploy these units, he requested the Council's approval to the above list of prospective troop-contributing Governments and stated that he would inform the Security Council of the outcome of his consultations and of the final list of troop-contributing Governments selected for this operation.

In another letter dated 8 September 1992,<sup>203</sup> the President of the Security Council informed the Secretary-General as follows:

"I have the honour to inform you that your letter dated 1 September 1992<sup>202</sup> concerning the increase in strength of the United Nations Operation in Somalia has been brought to the attention of the members of the Council. The members of the Council agree to the recommendation contained in that letter."

On 16 October 1992, following consultations with the members of the Council, the President made the following statement to the media on behalf of the members of the Council:<sup>204</sup>

"The Council heard today a communication from Mr. Sahnoun, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Somalia. On this occasion, the members of the
