

Government of the Sudan, the African Union and the United Nations

26th Tripartite Coordination Mechanism Meeting on the African Union-
United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur

New York, 29 September 2018

Agreed Outcome

1. On 29 September 2018, representatives of the Government of the Sudan (GoS), the African Union (AU), the United Nations (UN) and the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur (UNAMID) met in New York for the 26th meeting of the Tripartite Coordination Mechanism (TCM) on UNAMID.
2. The GoS delegation was led by H.E. Ambassador Abd Elghani Elnaim Awad Elkarim, Undersecretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan. The AU delegation was led by H.E. Ambassador Smail Chergui, the AU Commissioner for Peace and Security. The UN delegation was led by Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations, Mr. Jean-Pierre Lacroix and Under-Secretary-General for Field Support, Mr. Atul Khare, and the UNAMID delegation was led by the Joint Special Representative, Mr. Jeremiah Nyamane Kingsley Mamabolo.
3. In their remarks GoS, AU and UN welcomed the progress made in the implementation of both phase one and two of the UNAMID's reconfiguration plan, and committed to work in the same spirit of mutual cooperation and support towards the implementation of overall UNAMID drawdown plan and the support for the transition to recovery and development, in accordance with SCR 2429. Further, GoS assured of its continued cooperation in implementation of UNAMID's mandate and support for the smooth and orderly drawdown of all of UNAMID's equipment, personnel deployed in Darfur and to provide security assistance as and when needed.
4. While welcoming the remarkable progress to date on the release of shipments, the issuance of visas and the facilitation of movements of UNAMID in Darfur, the Tripartite undertook to continue their cooperation to enable UNAMID to effectively discharge its mandate.

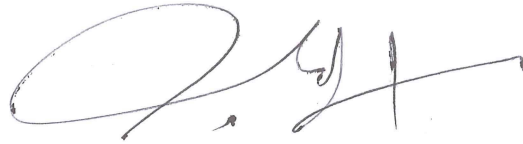

5. The representatives of GoS, the AU and the UN look forward to continuing their work in the same constructive atmosphere towards the successful completion of UNAMID's mandate.
